

TILLIE JONES

4106 77TH PL NW TULALIP WA 98271 · 206.240.2051

TEE_WEE_WAS@YAHOO.COM

Born with inherent privileges which came with the responsibility of strict discipline based off Indian law.

EXPERIENCE

2018 – 2019

OUTREACH COORDINATOR, BURKE MUSEUM:

BILL HOLM CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF NORTHWEST COAST ART

Breathe life into the Burke Museum Collection by assisting Native descendants of objects research based access. Outreach up and down the NWC traveling collections to their homes for a visit research workshop. Connect Native people to the collection housed at the Burke museum while being a representative for all Native people whose voice was once silent.

2014 – 2018

CULTURE SPECIALIST, HIBULB CULTURAL CENTER MUSEUM

Teach traditional activities engaged our ocean going canoes, songs & dances, traveling safely by water locally and internationally. Revive our clothing of our ancestors. Plant medicine gathering & transforming into ready for use or consumption to heal naturally. Ensure our traditional languages are present & available.

EDUCATION

JUNE 2015

UNDERGRADUATE INTERDISCIPLINARY, UNIVERSITY OF

WASHINGTON

Human Rights & American Studies

SKILLS

- Coast Salish Weaver
- Cedar Weaver
- Carving Tool

- Language Teacher
- Coast Salish Carver
- Researcher

ACTIVITIES

Active member of Tribal Canoe Journey. Continually researching & traveling. Demonstrating & teaching Coast Salish Weaving.